

The American Council of Christian Churches

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Membership in the American Council of Christian Churches (ACCC) is open to church denominations/fellowships, local churches, and individuals that have established strong loyalties to the fundamentals of the Christian Faith, stressing the need for ecclesiastical as well as personal separation. Each church must agree with the ACCC Doctrinal Statement and embrace the position publicly (see page 4). The Mission and Purpose Statement of the ACCC clearly explains our reason for existence (see page 3).

Membership will not be afforded to those in the National Council of Churches, World Council of Churches, National Association of Evangelicals, the modern charismatic movement or the ecumenical movement.

Failure to answer every question will result in the application being returned.

Yes, our organization wants to be a part of the American Council of Christian Churches as it declares in its mission/purpose statement:

The American Council of Christian Churches is a Fundamentalist, multi-denominational organization whose purposes are to provide information, encouragement, and assistance to Bible-believing churches, fellowships, and individuals; to preserve our Christian heritage through exposure of, opposition to, and separation from doctrinal impurity and compromise in current religious trends and movements; to protect churches from religious and political restrictions, subtle or obvious, that would hinder their ministries for Christ; and to promote obedience to the inerrant Word of God.

The American Council of Christian Churches
Doctrinal Statement

- The plenary Divine inspiration of the Scriptures in the original languages, their consequent inerrancy and infallibility, and as the Word of God, the supreme and final authority in faith and life.
- The triune God: Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit.
- The essential, absolute, eternal Deity, and the real and proper, but sinless, humanity of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- His birth of the Virgin Mary.
- His substitutionary, expiatory death, in that He gave His life “a ransom for many.”
- His resurrection from among the dead in the body in which He was crucified, and the second coming of this same Jesus in power and great glory.
- The total depravity of man through the fall.
- Salvation, the effect of regeneration by the Spirit and the Word, not by works, but by grace through faith.
- The everlasting bliss of the saved, and the everlasting suffering of the lost.
- The real spiritual unity in Christ of all redeemed by His precious blood.
- The necessity of maintaining, according to the Word of God, the purity of the Church in doctrine and life.
